

On the banks of St. Francois Lake

Ready for a change of scenery?
On the southwestern tip of Quebec, let yourself be swept away by beautiful wetland vistas and fascinating archaeological discoveries. Witness breathtaking sunsets!
Moreover, including archaeology, kayak, hiking and ornithology.

Living like the Iroquois

LAC SAINT-FRANÇOIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE AREA

1 For a relaxing change of pace, take a guided trip aboard one of our sea kayaks or giant canoes. Various packages available, from half-day excursions to longer stays.

7600, chemin de la Pointe-Fraser
Dundee
450 264-5908
www.amismnflacstfrancois.com

From $18

SAINT-ANICET

2 Take some time to discover this charming village on the shore of St. Francois Lake.

DROULERS-TSIIONHIAKWATHA ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE INTERPRETATION CENTRE

3 Learn about the life of the 15th century Iroquois through fun activities such as a visit to the long houses and the re-constructed Amerindian village. NEW: Spend the night in one of the long houses! Ask us for details.

1800, chemin Leahy, Saint-Anicet
450 264-3030 / 1 866 690-3030
www.sitedroulers.ca

Discounts see page 25

From $6

SAINT-ANICET CHURCH

4 Admire this majestic building facing St. Francois Lake. Magnificent sunsets that will take your breath away.

CAMPING

C5 Camping Le Dauphin
Page 17